

THE GEORGE & DOROTHY WALTON AWARD

George & Dorothy Walton were a couple of the American Revolution, whose relentless efforts and generous service left a lasting mark on the state of Georgia and, more locally, the CSRA-area. They were life-long public servants who humbly served their community, seeking no recognition or praise. AP Wealth Management presents this award to a CSRA-area couple who exemplify the legacy and values of George and Dorothy Walton.

BACKGROUND

George & Dorothy Walton were a couple of the American Revolution, whose relentless efforts and generous service left a lasting mark on the state of Georgia and, more locally, the CSRA-area. AP Wealth Management presents this award annually to a local couple who exemplify the legacy and values of George and Dorothy Walton.

The Walton Award recognizes a married couple who have contributed outstanding service to our community, expressly:

- Their lifestyle exemplifies selflessness, hospitality, courage and devotion to the nation, to community and the health of family in our culture.
- They both have a strong public service record (together or as individuals).
- Their lives and volunteering have a significant impact on people in our community.

The award is presented annually in February. The winning couple receives a physical award for display and are invited to choose a local *501(c)(3) organization to receive a substantial monetary donation given in their honor.

*Winners are chosen by the George and Dorothy Walton Award Committee and 501(c)(3) selections are subject to final approval of the committee.

NOMINEE REQUIREMENTS

- The candidates must be a living, married couple (or at least one surviving spouse).
- Both husband and wife must have a record of community service - not necessarily with the same organization.
- The couple (or surviving spouse) must reside in Richmond, Columbia, Burke, McDuffie or Aiken counties.
- The couple's community service must benefit more than one CSRA organization or cause.
