Thank you for connecting with AP Wealth Management through social media! The various social media tools online make it possible for us to share news and information with you in this way.

AP Wealth Management works diligently to operate within the regulations of the financial services industry and we do so to help maintain the integrity of our firm and the industry as a whole. As we comply with these rules, we ask you do as well.

The #1 Rule of Financial Services on Social Media

Specific financial questions and account information can't be posted by a client or an advisor. If you are a client, please contact your financial advisor. If not, you can find one of our advisors who will suit your needs here www.apwealth.com/#team.

It's also important to note that as convenient as it is to message within Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter, Instagram or other social media platforms, our financial advisors will not be able to return your message within those social media channels. They will respond, but will do so from their AP Wealth Management email accounts. You may also text our advisors at our office number (706) 364-4281 and they will respond to you promptly.

The site may contain links to articles or other information that are contained on a third-party website.
